25X1 15. [] Late in the afternoon I met with Mr. William Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, who advised that the President had signed the supplemental appropriations bill during the day, but that he had not yet received the Agency letter from Senator Russell.

25X1 16. [] Met with Mr. George Norris, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee. Mr. Norris indicated his appreciation for the additional instruction provided in yesterday's meeting. He noted in passing that the Committee will be tied up fairly completely for the remainder of the week with briefings by the Department of the Navy before the full committee. It is noted for the record that Mr. Norris' present feelings are that he will need quite some additional information from the Agency to guide the Committee concerning criteria for use in defining the Soviet missile capabilities and the comparative Soviet-United States missile strengths. No date was considered for the next meeting with Mr. Norris.
